MEMBER BOARD OF REVENUE SEP.REV., COMMISSIONER OF EXCISE AND COMMERCIAL TAXES.

Reference:

The Board submits to the Government an application for compassionate gratuity received from one K. Srinivasa Rao, the eldest son of late Sri K. Lakshmana Rao, clerk, Penukonda circle.

2 Sri K. Lakshmana Rao entered service in the department as a clerk on 22-7-14 and was confirmed with effect from 5-10-1916. He died on 28-9-40 after putting in a permanent service of 23 years 11 months & 24 days. He was drawing a pay of Rs.56/ per month at the time of his death. His conduct sheet contains 57 entries. He was suspended once for accumulation of three black marks and his increments were stopped on four occasions.

3 The late clerk has left behind him his widow aged 38 years, four sons aged 20, 17, 14 and 10 and three daughters aged 13, 7 and 1½. His eldest son, the petitioner, is running a sundry shop at Hospet with a capital of Rs.150/. It is stated that he is getting a small income of about 12 to 15 rupees a month from the shop and that he is maintaining the family with great difficulty. The petitioner's next brother who was reading in the V Form discontinued his study after his father's death and is now unemployed. The other two brothers are reading in the III and I Forms.

4 The deceased did not own any moveable or immoveable property except a one-fourth share in a plot of vacant land of 82 cents in Penukonda village; the value of his share in the land is estimated to be about Rs.100/- He subscribed to the General Provident Fund in Account No. 6337. The Assistant Commissioner has reported that a sum of Rs.419-10-0 which was at his credit in the General Provident Fund was withdrawn and disbursed to the widow on 20-3-41. The late clerk did not insure his life. The value of the utensils left is estimated to be Rs.100/-

5 The deceased was reported to have left liabilities to an extent of two hundred rupees. The petitioner has produced receipts showing payments made by him for Rs.120-13-1 only (pages 21 to 33 of the record of enquiry file). He has stated that he incurred an expenditure of ~~Rsx~~ about one hundred rupees towards the obsequies of his father. The net assets left by the late clerk thus work out to Rs.398-12-11 [(100 + 419-10-0 + 100)- (120-13-1 + 100)] and are far below his pay for 24 months. The late clerk had three brothers namely Krishna Rao, Rama Rao and Raghavendra Rao. Of these only the last is alive and is working as a teacher on a pay of Rs.52/ at Kuppam in Chittoor district. He has expressed his inability to protect the family of the deceased as he has three unmarried daughters and an old mother to support. He is not under any obligation to protect the family of the deceased as he and his brothers were already divided and were living separately.

6 Padmanabha Rao, the only son of Krishna Rao, one of the other two brothers of the deceased is at Penukonda. He has expressed his inability to render any assistance to the family of the deceased.

7 The other brother of the deceased has left two sons, one a major and the other, a minor. K. Subba Rao, the major son is stated to be living at Madras in his father-in-law's house.

8 The late clerk has three sisters of whom one is the wife of Gururaja Rao, Head Accountant, Taluk office, Rayadrug. The other two sisters are widows - one is at Nagari with her son who is working as Cotton Assistant, Agricultural Research station - Nagari, and the other is at Madras with her son Panduranga Rao who is a process server in the Corporation on a monthly pay of Rs.50/. All these three sisters who are under no obligation to support the family of the deceased have expressed their inabili

9 The deceased has left a large family behind him. Two boys have to be educated and one of the daughters has attained the marriageable age. In the circumstances the Board considers that though the petitioner is not utterly destitute, he deserves some help. In view of the clerk's long service of 24 years, the Board recommends that a gratuity of Rs.300- (three hundred rupees only) payable at Hospet sub-treasury may be granted to the petitioner. His mother and next brother have no objection to the payment of the gratuity to him.

To,

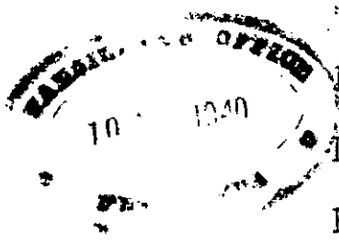
The G O V E R N M E N T,

Through,

The DEPUTY COMMISSIONER of EXCISE, BEZWADA.

And The INSPECTOR of EXCISE, PENUKONDA.

Sir,



I, the eldest son of Late Krishnagiri Lakshmana Rao, beg regretfully to report that my father, the said Lakshmana Rao, 3rd clerk of the Excise Inspector's Office, Penukonda, breathed his last at PENUKONDA, on 28th September last after a brief illness of fever for about a week, while he was on 3 months' leave. By his death, the family has sustained an irrepairable loss and has been deprived of its sole protector. My late father had worked in Government service for a period of nearly 25 years and was almost at the end of service, which, if completed, would have entitled him to earn a pension from the benign Government and he had already applied for pension with his leave application. He has left behind him a large family to mourn his loss and has absolutely made no provision for its maintenance after him. The family has become quite destitute on account of his demise.

The deceased has left behind four sons and three daughters besides his widow and an old mother of 90 years of age, myself, the eldest son, is about 20 years of age and have passed the S.S.L.C., The second son, who is about 17 years old is reading in the V Form and the third who is about 14 or 15 years of age in the third form and the fourth is a 10 year young boy and is reading in the 1st Form. His eldest daughter is about 13 years old and will be of marriageable age next year. There is ...

girl of 7 or 8 years old and the last one is an infant, barely a year old. The deceased had not insured his life but had begun contributing to the provident fund late in his service and I understand the fund accumulated will be about Rs.350/-. He had made no contributions, to any mutual or other funds. The deceased had no landed property, except a fourth share in a ditch adjoining the rampart wall of the fort at Penukonda, measuring less than one acre and lying waste. His share of about 20 cents may be valued at Rs.100/-. He has left no valuable moveables other than household articles. During his leave he lived at Penukonda, while myself with the two brothers was at Hospet, where my father was last residing. I sat for the selection for Ministerial Service by the Public Services Commission, but was not so fortunate as to be selected. I have, with a small capital of Rs.150/-, carrying on a sundry shop at Hospet, earning about Rs.15/- p.m. After my father I am the only earning member and thereis no one else in the family, who is in a position to render us any assistance. The deceased has a divided younger brother, surviving him, who is a petty school master at Kuppam, earning Rs.52/- per mensem. He has also a large family depending upon him. By the death of my father, who was until now maintaining his mother of 90 years old, the old woman has to seek protection under her only surviving son, viz., the school-master and so this family cannot have any succour from that source. As is well known to the Government, it devolves upon a Hindu brother to marry his aged sister, who is of marriageable age and the celebration of that event will be the first legitimate concern of the family as soon as the girl completes 14 years. Apart from this, imminent obligation, I have to educate my three younger brothers and maintain a family consisting of four adults, including myself and four children. My scanty earnings would hardly permit me to give at least a living meal to the large family, but this is an obligation from which I cannot shirk but must fight to the best of my ability.

It is needless for me to submit that sanction of compassionate gratuity by Government to one, who is placed in such straightened circumstances as myself will help me to tide over the emergent and imminent obligation and bring some consolation to a hard-stricken family.

My father entered service in July 1914 and had faithfully served Government for more than 20 years at the time of his death. The only punishment that he underwent was a suspension, which was awarded as the result of the accumulation of three default entries; but not for any act involving moral turpitude. I pray that this may be overlooked and full benefit be given by sanctioning the maximum compassionate gratuity. For this benign act of the Government, the whole family will be highly grateful and indebted life-long.

I beg to remain,
S I R,
Your Most Obedient Servant,

K. Srinivasa Rao

We are the natives of Penukonda. We know Sri K. Lakshmanna, late [illegible] of Excise office. He died after short ailment. He has 4 sons and 3 daughters. His eldest son is named Sethu Rao. The eldest son is aged 20 years. They all left for Hospet to make their livelihood. Srinivasa Rao, the eldest son is running a petty shop at Hospet. We are not aware of the property he has got at Hospet. But in their town late K. Lakshmanna has a house bearing D. No. 82 in S. No. 207 and the cost is Rs. 1000/- approximately. But the late clerk has only 1/4 share in it, i.e., Rs 100/- worth of land. The late clerk has three sons out of them only one is serving as he is working at Kuppam. The late clerk has no other property. He has contracted a debt of Rs. 200/- in the sundry shops at Penukonda. He has not contributed to any other funds except G.P.F. The [illegible] do not know the amount to his credit. There are none to [illegible] the family of the deceased. We do not know [illegible] they have at Hospet. It may be ascertained [illegible]

Statement of K. Padmanabha Rao before the Revenue Inspector Penukonda.

Lakshmana Rao of Excise office Penukonda is my father's brother. He died at Penukonda on 28-9-1940 after a brief illness. He has left a widow (Sathubai) and four sons and three daughters. The eldest son K. Sreenivasa Rao is aged about 20. The second son K. Krishna Rao is aged about 17 and the third son K. Ranga Rao is aged about 12 and the fourth K. Prahlada Rao is aged about 10. The eldest daughter Nagarathinamma is aged about 13. The second daughter Kamalabai is aged about 6 years and the last Indirabai is aged about 1 year. After the completion of the obsequies all of them have gone to Hospet. The eldest son is running a petty shop with a small capital for the last 8 or 9 months. He has taken the rest of the family with him to Hospet. My uncle Lakshmana Rao owns a fourth share in the ditch land adjoining the fort wall near the bus stand in Penukonda. The entire extent of the land is less than one acre and the entire value may be estimated at Rs. 400/-. My father and his brothers were living seperately for a long time being devided. Except the above said lands neither Lakshmana Rao or his brothers own no landed property. My father, Krishna Rao and another uncle of mine Rama Rao died previous to Lakshmana Rao. Lakshmana Rao's younger brother Raghavendra Rao is a school master

2. Case of K. Lakshmana Rao, clerk of the Revenue office, Penukonda died on 28.9.60. He has left behind him one wife (Sethubai) 4 male children and 3 female children. The petitioner K. Srinivasa Rao is the eldest son of the deceased. As he has gone to Hospet of Bellary district to take out his livelyhood with his mother and other 6 children I could not enquire him. I enquired one K. Padmanabha Rao condition of the deceased. He states that the deceased had left no houses. A plot measuring 1.75 cents in Survey No 207 and a plot measuring 0.07 cents in Survey No 208 of Perumbadu are in the joint names of the deceased and his other 3 brothers. Two of them died long ago and one Rajagopendra Rao is working as a teacher at Kuppam. Thus the deceased has got 1/4th share in the above property. The entire property is estimated to be Rs 400/- and the deceased's share is worth about Rs 100/- only. The deceased possessed utensils worth about Rs 100/- Thus the deceased has left no other property except the above. He has got a debt of Rs 200/- in different Shops of Perumbadu. He has not deposited any amount either in the Co-operative Societies or in the Mutual benefit Funds or in the Postal Savings Bank. He has not insured his life also. As it is it is very hard for his family to get on without pecuniary help. They have gone + settled at Some of the relations of the deceased are

Statement of Krishnagiri Srinivasa Rao son of late Krishnagiri Lakshmana Rao - Ranipet

Aged 20 years /

My late father K. Lakshmana Rao has left behind four sons and three daughters besides his widow and an old mother of 90 years. I am the eldest son. The 2nd son K. Krishna Rao is about 17 years old. He was reading in the V Form. After the demise of my father, he was forced to discontinue his studies. The 3rd son named K. Ranga Rao who is about 14 years old is studying in the 3rd Form. The fourth son K. Prahalada Rao, who is aged about 10 years, is reading in the 1st Form. The Eldest daughter whose about 13 years old is unmarried. Another girl of 7 or 8 years old & the last one is an infant of 1½ years. As I am the eldest son I am managing the whole affairs of the family. I am running a small petty shop with about a capital of Rs 150/- and thus earning about Rs 12/- to 15/- per mensem. My father has left neither immovable nor movable property. The big family Consisting of 9 members is entirely depending upon the small income that derive from this petty shop. We have no other source of income. In these circumstances I am managing with the family affairs with the greatest difficulty. My father has a divided younger brother K. Raghavendra Rao who is a petty school master at Kuppam in Chittoor Dt. drawing about Rs 52/- per mensem. As he has a big family to maintain, I could not get any help from him. I have passed S.S.L.C. and sat for the Public Service Commission Examination. But I am not so fortunate enough to be selected. I request that Compassionate Gratuity may be recommended.

We know about the family circumstances of late K. Lakshamana Rao. He was the Head Clerk of the Excise Inspector's Office, Ongole. He was transferred to Penukonda last year. He died there about four months ago. He has left no movable or immovable property. He has left behind four sons, 3 daughters & a widow. All the children are un-married. The whole family is entirely depending on a small income of about Rs 12/- to Rs 17- per mensem derived from a sundry shop, which is run by his eldest son K. Srinivasa Rao, with a small capital of Rs 20. This shop has been opened since last year only. The family has no other source of income except this shop. The family richly deserves help from the Govt.

My father has got 1/4 share in S.No: 207 & 208 measuring 0-75 & 0-07 respectively in Penkonda village. The worth of my father share in the above plots is estimated to be Rs 100/- only. Besides this land, my father was left no land or house either at Penkonda or Hosur. He had a debt of about Rs 200/- in different shops at Penukonda. He has not deposited any amount in the Cooperative societies or in the Mutual Benefit funds or in Postal Savings Bank. He has not even insured his life. I learn that he has about Rs 350/- in G.P Fund.
